A RUSSIAN ADMIRAL KILLED IN BATTLE

Several Russian Shigs Damaged
in the Last Engagement.

The Port Arthur Fleet Fared Badly
According to the Japanese—
Russia Protests to Japan.

JAPS AFTER VLADIVOSTOK FLEET.

London, Aug. 13.—Admiral Togo is today that Admiral Withoff was blown to pieces by a shell, while standing on the bridge of the Czarvitch during a sea fight. The vessels casualties were 310 killed and 60 wounded.

FIVE SHIPS DAMAGED.
Tokio, Aug. 13.—Admiral Togo reports that he believes that five Russian battleships he engaged August 10 were seriously damaged.

THE JAPANESE.
Tokio, Aug. 13.—Admiral Togo has reported as follows:

"On August 10 our combined fleet attacked the enemy's fleet near Gusan Rock. The Russian vessels were emerging from Port Arthur, trying to go south. We pursued the enemy to the eastward. Severe fighting lasted from 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, until sundown. Toward the close of the enemy's fire weakened remarkably, and then his ships scattered. The Russian cruisers Askold and Novik and several torpedo boat destroyers fled to the southward. Others of the enemy's retreated separately toward Port Arthur. We pursued them, and it appears that we inflicted considerable damage.

"The Czarvitch was sunk.
"The Russian vessels, with the exception of the Askold, the Novik, the Czarvitch and the cruiser Pallada, appear to have returned to Port Arthur. Our damage was slight."

ASKOLD BADLY DAMAGED.
Shanghai, Aug. 13.—The Russian protected cruiser Askold arrived at Woosung with her fifth funnel gone close to the deck, all the funnels riddled with shell holes, one gun on the port side dismounted and several large shell holes above the water line.

One lieutenant and eleven men had been killed, and fifty men wounded.
HARBORED BY GERMANS.
Chefoo, Aug. 13.—A late report from Tsing Chou says that the Russian warships still there are the battleship Czarvitch, the protected cruisers Pallada and Novik and three torpedo-boat destroyers. The Czarvitch, which is badly damaged, is being repaired with German assistance, it is alleged.
A strong detachment of Japanese warships is reported to have sailed south for the purpose of intercepting the Vladivostok fleet, which, it is believed, has not yet effected a junction with the vessels reported to have been purchased by Russia from the Argentine Government.

RUSSIA FILES PROTEST.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—Russia has already formally protested to Japan, through France, against the action of the torpedo-boat destroyers in attacking the Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Ryeshitlnei at Chefoo and towing her away from that port, and that the protest has been communicated to the powers.

This prompt action is based upon the official report of the Russian Consul at Chefoo, which is very explicit on the subject of the dismantling of the Ryeshitlnei, saying that not only were the breech blocks of her guns and all her small arms removed, but her engines were rendered useless. The vessel, therefore, was reduced to the condition of a hulk. The Consul also reported that the Japanese fired upon the Russian sailors while they were in the water. It is stated here that both France and Germany are supporting at Peking the protest of the Russian Government against the action of the Japanese torpedo-boat destroyers in attacking the Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Ryeshitlnei in the harbor of Chefoo.

WILL MAKE ATONEMENT.
London, Aug. 13.—The general opinion of the London morning newspaper is that Japan will make atonement for the Ryeshitlnei affair by restoring the ship to the Chinese authorities, but at the same time it is admitted that international obligations have so frequently been thrust aside during the course of the war that Japan may possibly feel entitled to make a law unto herself.

A BUFFALO JOCKEY KILLED.

RENEWED REQUEST.
London, Aug. 13.—Constantinople dispatch says that minister Leishman has renewed his request for an immediate settlement of the American demands. Either the demands will be granted, or the Minister will break off diplomatic relations.

WILL NOT SPEAK.
New York, Aug. 13.—President Roosevelt will make no speeches in the coming campaign. He has decided this after due deliberation. The general opinion is that it is unnecessary, his election is so certain.

RETIRED OFFICER DEAD.
New York, Aug. 13.—Brig.-Gen. Gilbert S. Carpenter, retired, is dead.

JUDGE TAFT SPEAKS.
St. Louis, Aug. 13.—Today is Philippine Day. Secretary Taft made the principal speech, and there was a big crowd present. It was a magnificent effort.

MORE RIOTING TODAY.
Chicago, Aug. 13.—There has been more rioting today. Meat wagon drivers were stoned. Another peace conference is being arranged.
A riot in crowded Fifth Avenue, within a square of the City Hall, and recalling the teamsters' strike two years ago, when missiles were hurled from the windows of office buildings, capped the climax of disorder in the meat cutters' strike late yesterday. During the day half a dozen men were hurt in various encounters, and shots were fired during an attack on a trainload of "strike breakers."

All told, the violence was more widespread than in any previous twelve hours of the strike, although no mob of great size took part in any of the assaults.

BRYAN LOSES
SUIT FOR PART OF THE BEN-NETT ESTATE DECIDED AGAINST HIM.
New Haven, Conn., August 13.—A decision adverse to William J. Bryan in his contest over the will of the late P. S. Bennett, of New York and this city, was handed down late yesterday afternoon by the supreme court of Errors after an all day session. The decision virtually denies that Mr. Bryan is entitled to the $50,000 mentioned in the sealed letter written by Mr. Bennett and addressed to his widow to be read by her, after his death. By this letter the widow was asked to give $50,000 to Mr. Bryan and his family.

A decision sustains the opinion given by the supreme court in the case last spring, and also the decision of the probate court before which the matter was first brought up.

CARRIER PIGEON FALLS.
Richmond, Va., August 13.—A carrier pigeon fell exhausted here. Tied to a leg was this message: "Your sweetheart, Cleveland, O. To a girl I love. No. 231."

NO WORD RECEIVED FROM BOOK TRUST

It is Not Known What it Will Do Here.

It May File an Injunction Suit, but
The Matter Is Not Yet Settled.

QUESTION INTERESTS MANY.

It is not known here what the American book trust intends to do regarding the decision of the local board of education to use the same books in the city schools, used last year.

The new school book law fixes an entirely different lot of books from those used last year, but they do not suit the local board. The American book company furnished most of the books used last year, as well as those to be used under the new contract, and what its position will be in consequence of the action of the Paducah school board, remains to be seen.

If it permits, without objection, the schools to use the same books used last year, it will furnish most of the books, and all of them at higher prices than under the new contract.

Under a new contract, however, it will furnish a much cheaper grade of books, so far as material is concerned.

A local book dealer said today that the trust made more money out of the cheap grade of books than it could out of the better grade, and for that reason might insist on furnishing the city schools books under the new state law, in which event it would have to file an injunction suit here enjoining the board from using the same books used last year.

As yet there has not been time to hear from the American book company and ascertain what it intends to do, but a great deal of interest has been aroused in the matter, as it is one that affects several thousand children in Paducah as well as their parents, who have to pay for the books.

The Madisonville Graphic is one of those papers that do not believe the new law is constitutional in all its provisions, and says:

"It may be that we are treading on dangerous grounds, perhaps straying into fields that belong rather to the legal than the editorial profession, but be that as it may, we have our opinion in reference to the School Book Bill passed by the last Legislature and its application to schools of cities of the first, second, third and fourth class, especially when these schools are known as graded schools. In this article we shall undertake to prove that the bill do not in any way apply to graded schools in any other section of the State.

"So far as we are able to see, there is nothing in the law making its provisions applicable to the school at Madisonville, or other towns similarly situated. It is in fact an amendment to the pre-existing common school law."

WILL END HIS DAYS IN THE ASYLUM

Tom Loftus Adjudged Insane at Hickman.

The Son of Wealthy People—He Went to the Dogs and Staid There.

ONCE LIVED IN PADUCAH.

Tom Loftus, once the village vagrant, of Paducah, and whose face was often seen in the prisoners' dock at the city hall, here years ago, has been taken to the asylum. Loftus has not been here in sometime, and is nearing his journey's end. Yesterday he was tried at Hickman and adjudged insane.

Yesterday's Fulton Leader says: "It is a pathetic scene to witness the passing of such a strong physical, yet, weak mental person as Tom Loftus once was."

"For many years he has been a saloon character, and has been a fear to the children and women of Fulton, although there was little harm in him. His mental derangement is due to the use of whisky to such an excess as Tom has been the unfortunate victim."

"Loftus is a big Irishman and was a soldier in the Yankee army, and we have never heard of or seen one who has had such a constitution as Tom Loftus."

"He was the black sheep of a wealthy family and left his parental home when a lad of 17 years to seek his own fortune. Like many, his fortune was not bright, and instead of climbing the ladder as one could have done with such opportunities as he had, he cast away his mite and went to the dogs. His sister, who is wealthy, and yet residing in St. Louis, came here several years ago and begged her wayward brother to go live with her in ease and comfort the rest of his days. But he was not willing to give up strong drink and refused to go with her."

"Loftus had lived in Fulton for many years, and has slept out in the open alleys without cover in the severest rain and snow storms. At one time citizens had to be called to cut his clothes free from the frozen ground, yet he never had colds or lung trouble, as many have who are housed.
"This unfortunate draws a monthly pension of $15 from the government. He has been so violent in the past few days that he had to be held in the lock-up. Last night when taken out for his supper he freed himself from the officers, and although an aged man it took six men to recapture him and place him back in the calaboose."

TROUBLE AGAIN

TOBE DENNIS ARRESTED FOR HOUSE BREAKING.

Tobe Dennis, the son of R. M. Dennis, the shoemaker of Eleventh and Broadway, is under arrest on the charge of house breaking, his father preferring the charge.
Dennis is said to be of unsound mind, but the authorities have never been able to determine whether it is that, or that he is simply a slick criminal.

Last night the boy entered his father's home and broke open several trunks in search of money, but got nothing. His father stated this morning that the boy had been to the penitentiary, asylum and reform school and did not seem to have been benefited.

MR. JOHN M. MELOAN BECOMES
MANAGING EDITOR OF THE NEWS-DEMOCRAT.

Mr. John M. Melon, at present of the Register, has accepted the position of managing editor of the News-Democrat, and assumes the position Monday. Mr. Melon is a newspaper man of much experience and ability, and previous to coming to Paducah the last time was an office holder at Frankfort, Kentucky.

Mr. Melon was at one time owner of the Murray Ledger and later of the Paducah Standard, but has been on the Paducah Register for the past ten months.

TO BUILD NEW TOWN AT FORT JEFFERSON

Now That the Famous Law Suit is Over, Work Begins.

The Promoters are at the Palmer House Today Holding a Conference.

A HISTORY TO HELP OUT.

Mr. W. S. Bryan, of Washington, D. C., the man who wrote Ridpath's history, and Col. George M. Jackson, of St. Louis, the original promoter of Fort Jefferson, and one of the most famous figures in the fifteen year's litigation over the Fort Jefferson Improvement Company, are at the Palmer House today holding an important conference.

It is understood that preparations are being made to build a new town at Fort Jefferson, Ky., which is about a mile from Wickliffe, Ballard county. Fifteen years ago the work of building the town began, and the succeeding legal war of the Dupuytists brought matters to a standstill and kept all the courts busy in that county, as well as some other places. Thousands of dollars were spent and neither side would give in, and finally, a short time ago, the last chapter was closed, and the Jackson faction gets a good slice of the land. Mr. Bryan is interested in property, owning a share of the property with Capt. Jackson, intends to immediately resume the work of developing the city, and make it one of the most thriving in that section.

Mr. Bryan, who is a writer of style and distinction, will write a prospectus, it is understood, in the shape of a history of the noted law suit, which will serve as both interesting reading and a good help in developing the city. The conference here today was to decide on a plan of action, and no details have yet been given out.

ANTI-SPITTING ORDINANCE.

It is understood that the ladies of the city will petition the general council to pass an ordinance against spitting in public places. The habit is not only filthy and unhealthy, but many dresses are ruined as a result of it.

Business with the local wholesale men is very active, especially in the drygoods and furniture lines. Orders from the south, Mississippi especially, are coming in freely and the indications are for a big trade in that quarter. Whiskey houses also report good business and the groceries are enjoying good trade. Collections are fair.
Business is dull in the lumber trade, but finished product manufacturers have more orders on their books than ever before.
Retail trade is at its dull season but local merchants are having better trade than a year ago.

The report of Kentucky whiskey for the year is:

From the above figures it will be noticed that there has been a marked decrease in the production of whiskey for the past year and a rather creditable increase in withdrawals.
The figures given above, as also those which appear below, were compiled by Mr. George C. Buchanan, of Louisville.

The W. F. Alvey Drug Store at Fourth and Broadway has been sold to Mr. Gus Smith, the well known drummer, for a private consideration, and Dr. Alvey will return to Elizabethtown, Ky., his former home, to reside temporarily, but may return later and locate here. The establishment is one of the best in the city, a drug store having been at that corner for many years, first owned by the late Dr. Ed Wilson and later by the late Mr. J. E. Robertson, from whom Dr. Alvey purchased it. Dr. Anthony List, the popular prescription list, will remain as manager under Mr. Smith's ownership.

Huntsville, Ala., Aug. 13.—The directors of the Tennessee-Alabama baseball league met here and decided to bring the season to a close August 20. The schedule was changed to have the closing games in Chattanooga, Columbia and Sheffield.

Vicksburg and Greenville of the Cotton States League with 19 innings and Paducah and Vincennes with 18 innings can now go to the rear while Cairo and Henderson with their 20 innings can walk up and take the front seat. Up to last Tuesday evening the Champions as a whole had a batting average in the last 13 games of .412. This is unprecedented. Only two players failed to come up to the .300 mark while Shannon leads with .687. Is it any wonder that the team is winning and proving to be a slaughter house for box artists. They continue still to "speak softly and carry a big stick."—Cairo Bulletin.

NOTHING FAMILIAR

To This Man Who Returns After Long Absence.

Inspector of Rural Route Was Here Last In 1877.

Mr. W. C. Ela, special agent for rural routes, is in the city inspecting the routes coming into Paducah. It is Mr. Ela's first visit to this city since 1877, and he naturally notes many changes.

"I would never have known it was the same place," he said to the Sun this morning, "and I have not yet succeeded in locating anything that looks familiar."

"One of my most vivid recollections is of some queer looking mule cars, running on two of the streets. The driver hitched his mule to the back end of the car, while he collected fares."

"Paducahans are certainly to be congratulated on the progress of their city since that time."

IN GOOD SHAPE

IS THE LOCAL I. C. BAGGAGE DEPARTMENT FOUND.

Mr. W. H. Williams, of Chicago, assistant chief baggage agent for the Illinois Central, passed through the city today en route to Louisville where he will next week oversee the baggage business, when the big Knights of Pythias conclave is held.

Mr. Williams makes several tours of the road annually straightening out the baggage business and often finds many amusing things. "North of the Ohio river everything is running smoothly," he said. "Occasionally we have trouble on the southern lines, however. We are asked to check everything from baskets of fruit, up, and in Mississippi have been threatened with all kinds of dire things for refusing to check as baggage chicken coops. One thing no road will carry as baggage is dynamite. Several weeks ago a quonsetware drummer who had more nerve than common sense had the words 'Dynamite' printed on his trunks in large white letters so the porters would handle his trunks carefully. He overlooked the fact that the company wouldn't check it at all, and didn't get it checked until he had painted the lettering out."

Mr. Williams finds the Paducah baggage department as good and systematic as any on the system.

FROM FRANKFORT

PROMINENT OFFICIALS PASS THROUGH PADUCAH TODAY.

Secretary of State H. V. McChesney and his assistant Mr. R. D. Reed, of Frankfort, arrived this morning from Louisville on their way to Smithland, Livingston county, on a brief visit to friends and relatives.

Smithland was their former home. Mr. McChesney for years being superintendent of the county schools.

THREE DOLLARS FOR ONE DOLLAR REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT.

Vast sums of money have been made by individuals who have bought land in places like Paducah by the acre and sold it by the lots. A concentration of small amounts by many individuals brings about the same result and proportion of profits. We are organizing a syndicate by which from $25.00 up may be invested, and the small interest makes as much in proportion as the largest interest.

A syndicate is being formed to buy 37 acres of land on the north side of the Hinkleville road, in the city limits, and within ten minutes walk of two car lines. The land is bought at $125 per acre and will sell readily in lots at $500 per acre. Only one-fourth cash is required so that a $25 investment means a $100 interest, a $125 investment a $500 interest and a $250 a $1,000 interest. We consider this investment absolutely safe and that it will pay a net profit of $3 for $1 invested within three years. It makes a fine opportunity for anyone to invest a small amount and yet get in on the ground floor of a genuine real estate bargain.

Full particulars on request. Whittemore Real Estate Agency, Fatenity Building. Both phones, 835.

TRAINMASTER RETURNS.

Trainmaster Henry Scheuing and wife have returned to the city after spending more than a week in Dawson. Mr. Scheuing made several tours of the road, looking after the improvements, but made Dawson his temporary headquarters, and is much benefited by his recreation. Mr. Scheuing expects business to pick up on the Louisville and Tennessee divisions of the I. C. within the next week or two, and is prepared to handle it all promptly.

"The Master Brew is the Beer for You"

DON'T BE TAKEN IN!

Most common beers cause biliousness, because they are not properly aged. Their brewers think they can't afford to use the time and space necessary to ripen their product.

BELVEDERE---THE MASTER BREW

Is properly aged—thoroughly fermented—free from every element of biliousness.

More than that, it is PURE—made from pure malt and hops—in the cleanest, neatest brewery under the shining sun. Belvedere, the master brew of Kentucky, is healthful because it is pure. It possesses that delicious, inimitable flavor because years of experience and the choicest materials in the world combine to make it perfect.

GAY WEEK.

Society, dull for so long was quite gay the past week. A number of pleasant functions were given, all out of doors, and all ideal summer affairs. Leading among them were the dance at Wallace park by the Cotillion club, and a picnic party at Edgewood, by the Magazine club, in honor of Miss Anna Webb, of Washington and Mrs. B. E. Reed of St. Louis.

AL FRESCO PARTY.

The Magazine club entertained at Edgewood, Mr. Saunders Fowler's country home on the Broadway road Thursday evening in honor of Miss Anna Webb, of Washington and Mrs. B. E. Reed, of St. Louis, formerly presidents of the club. Supper was served on the lawn at 6 o'clock. A long table was decorated in baskets of nasturtiums, and tall vases of sun flowers and golden glows, making a veritable symphony in yellow. A glow was placed beside each plate.

Covers were laid for about fifty, the guests of honor occupying the ends of the table. The luncheon was in two dainty courses.

Japanese lanterns were lighted, as soon as it grew dark, and negro musicians added to the attractiveness of the entertainment.

Miss Webb, who is now in charge of a young ladies' school in Washington, was the club's first president and has always been pleasantly remembered for her efficient service and her inspiration. Mrs. Reed, who is now a resident of St. Louis, where her husband is rector of Grace church of this city, was president of the club previous to going to St. Louis, two years ago. She was a bright, capable and faithful leader and still has a warm place in the hearts of the club members.

The Delphic club and husbands of the members of both clubs were guests.

The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. ### PAINFUL MISHAP.

CIRCUIT CLERK H. H. HOBSON FELL FROM STEPS AND BROKE HIS THIGH.

Col. H. H. Hobson, the popular circuit clerk of this county, fell from the rear steps in the rear of his home on Madison near Eleventh street yesterday afternoon and broke his right thigh at the hip.

The colonel was mounting the steps, which are quite steep and have no railing, and thinking he had reached the top, without looking he reached over to the side to brace himself against the door casing. Instead he fell from the steps, with the above result. Dr. P. H. Stewart was called and attended the injured man, who will be laid up possibly for several weeks. About ten years ago Colonel Hobson had the same leg broken while fox hunting over in Missouri.

THE STATE FAIR

Last Year's Graft Will Not be Repeated This Year.

There Were Legal Complications Which Could Not Be Settled.

Kentucky will have no State Fair this year. The decision has been reached by the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association on account of the refusal of State Auditor S. W. Hager to issue the warrant for the $15,000 auxiliary fund appropriated by the Legislature in 1902 for the maintenance of the State Fair. Mr. Hager refused to issue the warrant on the advice of Attorney General N. B. Hays, who held it unconstitutional in a similar opinion to that returned in the case of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

The Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association will institute a friendly suit against Auditor Hager, seeking to establish the constitutionality of the appropriation. It was paid in 1903 without question, and a movement to repeal it was defeated in the Legislature of this year after a hard and long-continued fight. The opponents of the appropriation succeeded in the House during the last rush of business, recommending that the State Auditor refuse to honor the requisition of the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association for the auxiliary fund.

It is expected to hold the Fair next year.

OFFICE CHANGED

THE YARD TELEGRAPH OFFICE NOW AT THE WEIGHING HOUSE.

An official bulletin announcing the transfer of the yard telegraph office from the old dispatchers' offices to the weighing house in the south yards, was posted today in local Illinois Central trainmen quarters.

The wires were changed this morning but the transfers is not effective until tomorrow at 12:01 o'clock. The day operator will be Mr. R. N. May, and the night operator J. J. Painter. All south bound trains will register at the weigher's office hereafter, and also incoming south bound trains. This arrangement will be of more convenience to the south end men.

CHILDREN DIE.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of urine difficulties. If it did there would be few children that would do it. There is a constitutional cause for this. Mrs. M. Summers, Box 4, Notre Dame, Ind., will send her home treatment to any mother. She asks no money. Write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child. The chances are it can't help it.

THE WEATHER.

FRIENDS OF THE MASSES.

One of the greatest fallacies of the Democratic party for the last eight years has been the apparent aim of its leaders to convince the voters of the country that it is the real and only friends of what Mr. Bryan designated as the "common people." In its last two campaigns the Democratic party
through its platforms, orators and newspapers has sought to create the impression that this nation is divided into classes, and that the Republican party represents the wealthy class while the Democratic stands for "oppressed plain people." In addition to being demagogic,
such teachings are positively dangerous,
or would be if so much reliance could not be placed on the hard, common sense and intelligence of the American voter. But the "reorganized" Democracy, claiming its restoration to sanity and soundness, has included the appeal to class prejudice in its platform plank
which declares that "We favor a revision and a gradual reduction of the tariff by the friends of the masses for the common weal."

The only intelligent interpretation of this declaration, granting the honesty of the party making it, is that the Democratic party believes that we no longer have a free Republic, built on the corner stone guaranteeing the political equality of all American citizens, but that we have a government of classes,
the aristocrats and the plebeians. Such a declaration, by a great party organization, is unjust, un-American and a betrayal of American political faith.

Aside, however, from the inappropriateness
of the declaration, the assertion that the Democrats propose to reduce the tariff, for the benefit of the masses,
will appeal to intelligent voters more as a threat than a promise. Business men, manufacturers, farmers, tradesmen,
laborers, all the "classes" cannot well forget the fact that the Democratic party reduced the tariff a few years ago, when the Republican administration was dismissed and Democratic guidance accepted in the midst of an era of general prosperity. The memory of that change is stamped in the minds of the masses who were robbed of prosperity and forced to accept adversity.
It requires a high grade of political courage to ask them to repeat the experiment.

The Irish-Americans are rapidly
coming over to the Republican party.
The Globe-Democrat, says:

The Boston Pilot's abandonment of the Democracy will be made the text of many discussions on the connection of the Irish with American politics. Until about a score of years ago a large majority of the Irish-American voters were probably Democrats. There has been a movement of the Irish over to the Republicans, however, in recent years, and it is probably stronger just now than it ever was in any previous presidential campaign. T. St. John Gaf-ney remarks that "a great deal of the prejudice which has been directed against the Irish in the past has been the result of their identification with Democratic municipal politics." He mentions the association of his race with Tammany,

and says it is more evenly divided at present than ever before, and declares that this is good for the Irish as well as for the Republican party.

The city of Paducah now has so many law suits on its hands and so much legal business to look after that it has had to employ an extra attorney at extra expense. This is no reflection on the regularly elected city solicitor, but the fault if the officials responsible for the litigation. There is enough work for one lawyer to do without getting the city into every kind of law suits possible. Every dollar spent for extra legal services is another dollar taken from the pockets of the tax payers.

A farmer's club in Livingston county has figured up that the country spends about $300,000 a year on roads, counting in the value of the labor required
of the 1200 voters subject to road duty.
Yet they have abominable roads.

The sooner the farmers realize that good, substantial roads means a saving in taxes, in addition to more satisfactory service on the roads, the better for the tax payers of a county.

There ought to be some way to get at those careless mail agents on trains,
who carry by the Louisville papers every few days. Thus far, however, it goes on with commendable regularity
without any sign of remorse or abatement.

President Cleveland says that the outcome of the St. Louis convention was due to Providence. The general impression is that it was due to a Western Union telegram.

Delegates to a convention may be fooled in making a platform and naming candidates, but no party has ever yet succeeded in fooling the voters at the ballot box.

President Roosevelt has not found it necessary to explain any differences of opinion between himself and his party
as expressed in the platform declarations.

The American voter can read the Republican tariff plank without the aid of an interpreter.

Democracy's chances might be better
if there was a four year limit on memory.

YOUTHFUL TRAMP

Bowling Green Boy "Hoboed"
His Way to the Fair.He Was Well Treated—Had Very Little Trouble, and Was
"Living Easy."Cleveland French is the name of a 12-
year-old hobo who was taken into custody this morning by Patrol Driver, John Austin.

The boy lives at Bowling Green, he says, and his father is a blacksmith.
About a month ago the youth decided
he would visit the World's Fair in St.
Louis, and with his savings, amounting to $2, started out. He boarded a passenger train and went as far as his money would take him, roughing it on freights the remainder of the way.

He remained in St. Louis three weeks, staying with an uncle and left for home
day before yesterday, arriving in Paducah this morning. Young French stated he was stored away in a box car by a friendly brakeman and has been treated nicely on his trip.

The boy is unusually bright and says
he had a good time. He will go home and was released from custody shortly after arrest. He got his board by begging on the way.

AFTER ALLEGED THIEF

Captain Joe Woods left this morning on the Dick Fowler for Cairo
after Charles Rhodes, a white man of Mechanicsburg, who is charged with stealing diamond and pearl earrings belonging to Margaret Wood, the colored chambermaid on the Fowler.
Rhodes is alleged to have gone to Cairo August 8th and stolen the earrings from the stateroom while no one was about. Rhodes was arrested at Cairo for alleged robbery and the earrings were found on him.

MARRIED IN ILLINOIS.

A Hillsboro, Ill., dispatch says
that Mr. John I. Bow, of Fillmore, Ill., and Miss Mary Arnold, of Paducah, Ky., were married there. The name of Miss Mary Arnold does not appear in the directory.

SIXTEEN OFFICIALS
ARE TO BE ELECTEDHalf the General Council Goes
Out in December.Little Interest Manifested Thus Far—
A New Question Sprung Over Sidewalk Contracts.

The November election will be of more importance in Paducah than many suppose, as half the general council is to be elected then.

Under the second class charter half
the council and half the aldermen serve
one year and the other half two years,
making half the board of new members
every year.

In November six councilmen are to be chosen to succeed the following:
Councilmen, Ed Hannan, Al Hymarsh,
J. S. Jackson, Charles Smidley, Jas. Mc-
Carty and L. D. Watson.

The retiring aldermen are—Aldermen
Charles Reed, Gus Singleton, Henry
Orme, and A. W. Greif.

The retiring school trustees are—Robertson, First ward; May, Second ward; Herndon, Third ward; Greif, Fourth
ward; McFadden, Fifth ward; Renfrow, Sixth ward. McFadden has resigned and his successor will hold for the next two years.

The Democratic city committee has taken no steps thus far to make the necessary nominations, and the general opinion seems to be that no primary will be held, as it would cost the candidates
too much.

A lot of property owners along the streets and sidewalks reconstructed under the Terrell contract are again indignant. They have never been pleased with the quality of work, and now they find that they are asked to pay 19 1/2 cents a square foot for concrete sidewalks, no matter for how much less
they are able to get the work done.

Contractor Terrell claims that under the contract let to him by the city the property owners may put down either brick or concrete for sidewalks. He has nothing to do with the brick, but if they have concrete walks laid, he claims
he is entitled to the contract, and is entitled under his contract with the city,
to get 19 1/2 cents for it.

Some of the property owners claim they can get the work done for several cents a foot cheaper, but Mr. Terrell says they have no right to do it, and if they do it, he will sue to collect his profits. His attorneys claim that his point is well made, and it seems to be.

The principal indignation seems to be directed against the general council for allowing a contract like that to go through. No property owner wants to pay 19 cents a foot if he can get the same work done for 14 or 16 cents, yet that is what he will have to do by virtue of the business methods of the general council, according to the contention of the contractor and his attorney.

The contractor would probably have taken steps to prevent anyone having brick sidewalks, had his attorney constructed the charter as the Board of Works does. There is a provision of the charter which provides for a "uniform system" of street improvements, but no one seems able to determine what it means.

The Board of Public Works of Paducah construed it to mean that when a contract for street improvement or reconstruction is let, it must require similar material used by all property owners, and is generally admitted that it should mean that, and that contracts should be prevented allowing one man to put down the clean, attractive, substantial concrete, and another put down soft,
unsightly brick, as was done along some of our principal streets, under this Terrell contract.

Contractor Terrell's attorneys do not think that is the proper construction of the law, however, and do not believe that such a construction could be sustained in the courts, hence Mr. Terrell will not make a fight to force property owners to put down concrete, as he might do.

His attorneys today confirmed the report that he would bring suit for profits against all property owners allowing others to do the concrete sidewalk work.

Chairman W. M. Reed, of the park committee, stated today that a meeting of the committee would be held Monday morning. About all the park sites have been inspected and the committee Monday will probably formulate a report
of some description to the general council.

Contractor Charles Robertson will today finish his contract on West Jefferson street, from indications this morning. He expected to finish Wednesday, but was unable to do so. This boulevard is one of the handsomest in the city, and will, as soon as opened up,
prove to be one of the most popular.

The street roller is temporarily out of commission, undergoing light repairs,
but will be all right again in a day or two. The Board of Works claims it is being good service everywhere it is used.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock a meeting of the street committee and the Board of Public Works will be held to take up the matter of double tracking Broadway. It has been decided to improve the thoroughfare, but the question of double tracking has never yet been passed on.

His Father Wouldn't Like It.

"Mister," said the little boy to the farmer leaning over the fence, "the mule has run away and spilt my load
o' hay. Won't you come and help me put it on the wagon again?"

"I will," said the farmer, "if you will come over here fuss an' help me
git my cows out o' the pasture."

"Oh," said the little boy, "I'm afraid father wouldn't like that."

"Why wouldn't he?" growled the farmer.

"Because," said the little boy, "he always taught me to look out for himself."

"Where is your father?" asked the
farmer.

"Please, sir," said the little boy, "he's under the hay."—Lippincott's Maga-

President in the Bible.

The title president occurs in the Bible. "It pleased Darius to set over

Mark Twain on Polygamy.

A Mormon once argued polygamy with Mark Twain. The Mormon insisted that polygamy was moral, and he defied Twain to cite any passage of Scripture that forbade the practice.

"Well," said the humorist, "how about that passage that tells us no man can

VERY TRYING TO WOMEN

Are the Peculiar Ills Brought on by Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs.

(Per-na is a Tonic Especially Adapted to Their Peculiar Diseases.)

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of that class of diseases popularly known as female weakness. Catarrh of the pelvic organs produces such a variety of disagreeable and irritating symptoms that many people—in fact, the majority of people—have no idea that they are caused by catarrh.

A great proportion of women have some catarrhal weakness which has been called by the various doctors she has consulted by as many different names. These women have been treated and have taken medicines, with no relief, simply because the remedies are not adapted to catarrh. It is through a mistaken notion as to the real nature of the diseases that these medicines
have been recommended to them.

If all the women who are suffering with any form of female weakness would write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and give him a complete description of their symptoms and the peculiarities of their troubles, he will immediately reply, with complete directions for treatment, free of charge.
"Health and Beauty," a book written especially for women, sent free by Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Alice Dressler, of No. 1313 North Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes
as follows concerning Peruna:

"I was suffering from catarrh of the throat and head. One of my college friends, who was visiting me, asked me to try Peruna and I did so and found it all and more than I had expected. It not only cured me of the catarrh, but restored me to perfect health."—Alice Dressler.

Miss Mamie Groth, Plattville, Wis.,
writes:

"I have for several years suffered with frequent backache and would for several days have splitting headaches.
Several of my friends advised me to take Peruna and I asked my physician
what he thought of it. He recommended it and so I took it and am entirely without pain of any kind now."

—Mamie Groth.

In a recent letter from No. 2 Grant
Ave., Denver, Col., Mrs. Ida L. Gregory
writes:

"Some six years ago my husband suffered with nervous prostration, and advising with a friendly druggist he brought home a bottle of Peruna. His health was restored from its use, his appetite was increased and restful sleep came to him."—Ida L. Gregory.

Miss Florence Murphy, No. 208 Second Ave., Seattle, Wash., writes:

"I suffered for over a year with female trouble, and although I tried several physicians none of them seemed to be able to help me permanently. It was only took a little over three bottles
of Peruna to make me well and strong.
I never have backache, headache or bearing down pains any more."—Florence Murphy.

Mrs. Louise Westbrook, No. 9 East
Columbia St., Detroit, Mich., Secretary
of the West Side Lotus Club, writes:

"For several years I suffered with leucorrhoea and painful menstruation,
which was followed by general debility,
until I was but a wreck of myself.
Thanks to Peruna I am a well woman
to-day."—Louise Westbrook.

Miss Jessie Westland, No. 767
Beaubien Ave., Detroit, Mich., District

Deputy of Detroit Independent Order of Good Templars, writes as follows:

"Peruna has been a blessing to me and gladly do I endorse it. For two years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach. I lost flesh and grew thin and emaciated, nervous and exhausted, so that I could neither work or enjoy life. I began taking Peruna and can now eat and enjoy everything I eat. I have been well over a year now."—Miss Jessie Westland.

SMALL POX CASE

SON OF REV. J. L. PERRYMAN
ILL FROM THE DISEASE.

Dr. Sory has reported to Health Officer Graves a case of smallpox discovered on Bronson avenue yesterday,
and the place will be quarantined
until the patient has recovered and all danger of a spread has passed.

Dr. Sory was called to the residence of Rev. J. L. Perryman yesterday to visit Mr. Louis Perryman, a son, who had symptoms of smallpox. Dr.
Sory decided to wait until he was certain, and this morning his suspicions were confirmed and the case was reported to the health officer.

This is the first case of smallpox
reported in the city in several weeks,
the last patient being discharged
from the pest house more than a month ago. There is no likelihood of a spread.

This is a much needed improvement
as the freight room, the waiting room,

NO INDICTMENT

GRAND JURY AT WICKLIFFE FAILS TO INDICT KOTHEIMER.

A long distance telephone message from Wickliffe this afternoon stated that the grand jury had returned the minutes of the examining court in the case against Engineer Phil Kothelmer, of Paducah, marked "ignored" and instead, indicted the negro brakeman for breaking into the car and stealing a box of oranges. Engineer Kothelmer always said that the negro broke into the car and when he got off and saw the Illinois Central special agent watching him, took the oranges and dropped them over in the engineer's yard.

$7,000 ALIMONY

THE THURMAN DIVORCE SUIT SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

Bristol, Aug. 13.—The divorce suit of Mrs. Olivia Thurman against Gen. Chas. Thurman was settled out of court. She is to get a divorce and seven thousand dollars alimony. She charged that he forced her into a madhouse to get rid of her. She convinced the authorities of her sanity and was released.

OLD FASHIONED

BUT STILL IN THE FASHION.

It is an ever new and interesting story to hear how one can be entirely cured by change of food.
"For two years I was troubled with what my physician said was the old fashioned dyspepsia.
"There was nothing I could eat but 20 or 30 minutes later I would be spitting my food up in quantities until I would be very faint and weak. This went on from day to day until I was terribly wasted away and without any prospects of being helped.
"One day I was advised by an old lady to try Grape-Nuts and cream, leaving off all fatty food. I had no confidence that Grape-Nuts would do all she said for me as I had tried so many things without any help. But it was so simple I thought I would give it a trial, she insisted so.
"Well I ate some for breakfast and pretty soon the lady called to see her 'patient' as she called me and asked if I had tried her advice.
"Glad you did child, do you feel some better?
"No," I said, "I do not know as I do, the only difference I can see is I have no sour stomach and come to think of it I haven't spit up your four teaspoons of Grape-Nuts yet."
"Nor did I ever have any trouble with Grape-Nuts then or any other time for this food always stays down and my stomach digests it perfectly; I soon got strong and well again and bless that old lady every time I see her.
"Once an invalid of 98 pounds I now weigh 125 pounds and feel strong and well and it is due entirely and only to having found the proper food in Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

STRANGE FACES ON LOCAL DIAMOND

Paducah's Line Up Today Shows Several New Players.

A Series With Clarksville, Began This Afternoon—Fast Games are Anticipated.

OTHER NEW PLAYERS COMING.

The Paducah and Clarksville baseball teams arrived this morning and this afternoon are playing at Wallace Park. These are games transferred to Paducah because of the lack of patronage at Clarksville, and will be the first here in some time.

The lineup of the Indians today will show some changes. Lally, who is a first baseman, will play first and Harley will go to the outfield. Bateman will play third base and Gerard to the bench for today. Bonno or Brahe will pitch and Barlow, Harley and McGill will play the field.

Taylor, the big 200 pound fielder and pitcher, is with the team and is said to be mighty fast. He has been playing good ball for the team.

McGill got three hits yesterday, the first in 12 games. One was a home run, the second a two bagger and the third a single, all out of three times up. His hitting eye is returning.

Bonno, the pitcher, Bateman the third baseman and Lally, the short stop, are here, Bonno having arrived last night and the two latter this morning.

Bonno is a pitcher of reputation, having played with larger league teams. He has of late been playing independent ball, however. Lally and Bateman have been with the Cochoc-ton, O., independent team, which recently disbanded when the Sydney, O., team went to pieces.

Bateman was with the Indians at the beginning of the season, but jumped his contract. Lally is said to be a good hitter and also is Bonno.

O'Brien and Sawyer, infielder and pitcher of the Tri-State league, are expected today. Sawyer was with New Decatur, Ala., last season and pitched here. He did not make much of an impression with the fans.

The Paducah management has loaned Bobby Barlow to the Hopkinsville team, but he can be recalled at any time.

It was stated this afternoon that both Shortstop Peipho and Centerfielder Barlow had been loaned to Hopkinsville, but declined to go, and that they would this evening try to get their release.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mother should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the congested consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Mr. Evan Prosser, of the B. & O., is in the city on business.

PARKER'S EFFUSION SUITS OPPONENTS

Republicans Everywhere Pleased With its Impression.

He Bears the Earmarks of a Weakling —Overwhelming Victory for Republicans.

LABOR OPPOSES JUDGE PARKER.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 13.—After a careful study of Judge Parker's speech of acceptance, national Republican leaders in charge of the Western campaign expressed profound relief. They had expected trouble from the direction of Esopus, but profess to see nothing in the Democratic nominee's public utterances that will not make Republican voters.

Harry S. New sounded the keynote of the Republican speaking campaign by a general attack upon the address of Judge Parker. He declared that if it raised an issue it was not apparent to the careful student of affairs, and he defied any one to point out a single declaration on any vital question before the voters in the presidential campaign.

The Democratic nominee talks of this country having a standing army of 10,000 men prior to 1860. The statement answers itself. Chicago probably had a police force at the same time.

GOLD DEMOCRATS DISAPPOINTED.
New York, Aug. 13.—Enthusiasm has been aroused by Judge Parker's speech in Republican circles and bitter disappointment among gold Democrats. It developed today that James Speyer, the banker, who is one of the most prominent sound money Democrats in this city, is not going to support Parker, but is going to vote for Roosevelt. Like hundreds of other gold men in the business district who, prior to the rise of Bryanism, supported Democratic presidential candidates, Mr. Speyer has decided that Democratic platform is sufficiently indicative of the real situation.

GOVERNOR O'DELL TALKS.
New York, Aug. 13.—Gov. O'Dell gave out an interview charging Judge Parker with permitting D. B. Hill to write portions of his acceptance speech and declaring that the judge had done a great work for the Republicans by his utterances yesterday.

"The judge's speech needs a key," he declared. "What does he mean by Jeffersonian simplicity? and how does it fit in with anti-imperialism? Jefferson was one of the greatest aristocrats this country ever produced, and he ruled over a vast domain without the consent of the governed."

"The phrase, 'Jeffersonian simplicity,' was fixed up by him and put into Parker's speech. The story of Jefferson tying his horse to the fence while he went in to the capitol to make his speech before Congress is the same kind of a fable as the tale of William Tell and the apple, and Washington's cherry tree and hatchet. It was Jefferson who introduced finger bowls and other social refinements from France."

DEBS AGAINST PARKER.
Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 13.—Eugene V. Debs, the presidential candidate of the Socialist party, in an interview today, said:
"Organized labor is making an issue of Judge Parker's decision in the New York court of appeals, declaring the eight-hour day law of the state of New York unconstitutional. The decision was rendered on April 28, 1903, by the court of appeals at Albany. Judge Edgar M. Cullen wrote the decision, declaring the eight-hour law of 1899 unconstitutional. Chief Justice Parker, now the Democratic candidate for the presidency, concurred in the decision, which set aside that popular piece of legislation passed in the interests of the laboring men of New York state."

"The rank and file of the industrial elements of the country look upon the Democratic party as having been captured at the St. Louis convention by the Wall street wing of the party, and that in the event of the party's success, the administration would be dominated wholly by that power, and labor would look in vain for relief from corporate oppression and injustice."

"In making this view the people have been influenced largely by their former leader, William J. Bryan, who long before the convention met, issued a warning that the nomination of Judge Parker would mean the triumph of the trusts and the defeat of the people."

AT WASHINGTON.
Washington, Aug. 13.—Representative McCleary of Minnesota, sums up the speech of acceptance of Judge Parker in these words: "We can't do anything. Trust us."

Mr. McCleary, who has been in Washington for several days, called on the President. He said he had read Judge Parker's acceptance speech and was distinctly disappointed. It was not up to what he had expected, he said, of the Democratic standard bearer. The speech asked the country to take the Democratic ticket on trial, for the reason that it would not be able to do any harm in case of election.

Representative Foss of Illinois, Representative Curtis of Kansas and others, all of whom were among the President's visitors, take this view of the Parker letter. In their sections of the country they could see nothing but overwhelming success.

Before presentation to the supreme court with the appeal, the transcript duplicates will have to be compared with the original, at an additional cost of $1,000. ARE DESERTING
IMPORTED MEN DO NOT LIKE ZEIGLER JOB.
Carbondale, Ill., August 13.—The developments at the Zeigler plant at Zeigler during the past twenty-four hours have been unusual, in that practically the same number of men imported have deserted the stockade. More than thirty men, under heavy guard, were taken into Zeigler last night. Their coming was known in advance of their arrival at Duquoin or Christopher and the only outward evidence of a strike was the derisive cries of small boys and women.

Tonight the great searchlight, the only one in Illinois began its vigil from the top of the tipple, 150 feet high. Preparations on a tremendous scale have been completed and the next importation, it is claimed, will consist of 20 skilled men, many of them with their families.

IMPORTED MEN DO NOT LIKE ZEIGLER JOB.

Carbondale, Ill., August 13.—The developments at the Zeigler plant at Zeigler during the past twenty-four hours have been unusual, in that practically the same number of men imported have deserted the stockade. More than thirty men, under heavy guard, were taken into Zeigler last night. Their coming was known in advance of their arrival at Duquoin or Christopher and the only outward evidence of a strike was the derisive cries of small boys and women.

Tonight the great searchlight, the only one in Illinois began its vigil from the top of the tipple, 150 feet high. Preparations on a tremendous scale have been completed and the next importation, it is claimed, will consist of 20 skilled men, many of them with their families.

"Git for'd," commanded the big man. Wilbur drew himself up, angry in an instant. "Look here," he began, "what's the meaning of this business? I know I've been drugged and mis- handled. I demand to be put ashore. Do you understand that?"

"Angel child," whispered the big man. "Oh, you lile of the vallee, you bright an' mornin' star! I'm reely pained, y' know, that your vally can't come along, but we'll have your piano set up in the lazarette. It gives me genuine grief, it do, to see you bein' obliged to put your lile white feet on this here vulgar an' dirty deck. We'll have the Wilton carpet down by to- morrow, so we will, my dear. Yash-it he suddenly broke out as his rage boiled over. "Git for'd, d're hear? I'm captain of this here bathtub, an' that's all you need to know for a good while to come. I ain't generally got to tell that to a man but once, but I'll stretch the point just for love of you, angel child. Now, then, move!"

Wilbur stood motionless, puzzled beyond expression. No experience he had ever been through helped in this situation.

"Look here," he began, "I—"

The captain knocked him down with a blow of one enormous fist upon the mouth, and while he was yet stretched upon the deck kicked him savagely in the stomach. Then he allowed him to rise, caught him by the neck and the slack of his overcoat and ran him forward to where a hatchway not two feet across opened in the deck. With- out ado he flung him down into the darkness below, and while Wilbur, diz- zied by the fall, sat on the floor at the foot of the vertical companion ladder, gazing about him with distended eyes, there rained down upon his head first an oilskin coat, then a sou'wester, a pair of oilskin breeches, woolen socks and a plug of tobacco. Above him, down the contracted square of the hatch, came the bellowing of the cap- tain's voice:

"There's you fit out, Mister Lile of the Vallee, which the same our dear friend Jim makes a present of and no charge, because he loves you so. You're allowed two minutes to change, an' it is to be hoped as how you won't force me to come for to assist."

A trapdoor fell away beneath Wilbur's feet.

It would have been interesting to have followed, step by step, the mental process that now took place in Ross Wilbur's brain. The captain had given him two minutes in which to change. The time was short enough, but even at that Wilbur changed more than his clothes during the two minutes he was left to himself in the reeking dark of the schooner's fo'c'st'le. It was more than a change—it was a revolution.

What he made up his mind to do, pre- cisely what mental attitude he decided to adopt, just what new niche he elect- ed wherein to set his feet, it is difficult to say. Only by results could the change be guessed at. He went down the forward hatch at the toe of Kitch- ed's boot—silk hatted, mufion over- coated, patent booted and gloved in snoods. Two minutes later there emerged upon the deck a figure in oil- skins and a sou'wester. There was blood upon the face of him and the grime of an unclean ship upon his bare hands. It was Wilbur, and yet not Wilbur. In two minutes he had been, in a way, born again. The only traces of his former self were the patent leather boots, still persistent in their gloss and shine, that showed with grin incongruity below the vast compass of the oilskin breeches.

As Wilbur came on deck he saw the crew of the schooner hurrying for- ward, six of them, Chinamen every one, in brown feans and black felt hats. On the quarter deck stood the captain barking his orders.

"Consider the Lile of the Vallee," bellowed the latter as his eye fell upon Wilbur the transformed. "Clap on to that starboard windlass brake, sonny."

Wilbur saw the Chinamen ranging themselves about what he guessed was the windlass in the schooner's bow. He followed and took his place among them, grasping one of the bars.

"Break down!" came the next or- der. Wilbur and the Chinamen obeyed, bearing up and down upon the bars till the slack of the anchor chain came home and stretched taut and dripping from the hawse holes.

"Vast heavin!"

And then as Wilbur released the brake and turned about for the next order he cast his glance out upon the bay, and there, not 150 yards away, her spotless sails tense, her cordage humming, her immaculate flanks slip- ping easily through the waves, the water hissing and churning under her forefoot, clean, gleaming, dainty and aristocratic, the Ridgeways' yacht Petrel passed like a thing of life. Wilbur saw Nat Ridgeway himself at the wheel. Girls in smart gowns and young fellows in white ducks and yachting caps—all friends of his—crowded the decks. A little orchestra of musicians were reeling off a quick- step.

The popping of a cork and a gale of talk and laughter came to his ears. Wilbur stared at the picture, his face devoid of expression. The Petrel came on, drew nearer, was not a hundred feet away from the schooner's stern. A strong swimmer, such as Wilbur, could cover the distance in a few strokes. Two minutes ago Wilbur might have—

"Set your mains'l!" came the bellow of Captain Kitchell. "Clap on to your throat and peak halyards!"

The Chinamen hurried aft. Wilbur followed.

CHAPTER II.

IN the course of the next few mo- ments, while the little vessel was being got under way and while the Ridgeways' Petrel gleamed off into the blue distance, Wilbur made certain observations.

The name of the boat on which he found himself was the Bertha Millner. She was a two topmast, twenty-eight ton keel schooner, forty feet long, carry- ing a large spread of sail—mainsail, foresail, jib, flying jib, two gaff top- sails and a staysail. She was very dirty and smelled abominably of some kind of rancid oil. Her crew were Chi- namen—there was no mate—but the cook, himself a Chinaman, who ap- peared from time to time at the door of the galley, a potato masher in his hand, seemed to have some sort of au- thority over the hands. He acted in a manner as go-between for the captain and the crew, sometimes interpreting the former's orders and occasionally giving one of his own.

RHEUMATISM.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop., Sullivan House, El Reno, O., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c, $1.00. DuBois, Kolb & Co.

WILL TAKE THE JOB.

A conference with Hon. John K. Hendrick yesterday afternoon resulted in his acceptance of the offer to assist the city solicitor in the vast amount of litigation in which the city is in- volved, and if the finance committee and general council ratify the fees agreed on, which it is expected they will, he will begin work at once.

NOT THE MAN.

The negro claiming to be Porter Williams, of Earlinton, Ky., arrested here suspected of being Roy Green, the Owensboro murderer, is not the man. Green was arrested in Louis- ville and acknowledged his identity, but denied knowing anything about the crime. Williams was released.

The Owner of The Beatrice

(Original.)

In the Newport Casino two ladies, mother and daughter, were lounging, making remarks about those sitting near or passing.

"Oh, heavens, Beatrice," said the mother, "there's Walter Wells! If he sees us it will spoil everything. Just think of his telling people that we came from a Mississippi river town."

The daughter bit her lip. "How un- fortunate!" she said.

"And just as we have been taken up by the B's. Here he comes. We mustn't see him on any account."

The mother turned her head squarely on the man who was approaching; the daughter, after hesitating, suddenly became interested in a group which called her gaze to another part of the room. The man walked by, his eyes fixed on the two women. He had started forward with an expectant look on his face, which turned into a bitterly disappointed, then a severe, one. In- stead of going up to them, as he had at first plainly intended, he passed on.

"Oh, mother," said the girl. "I wonder if he saw us."

"Saw us! Of course he did and knew we didn't want to be bothered with him. I wonder what he is doing here. He was as poor as a church mouse when we left C. ten years ago."

That night there was a ball at B's, and Mrs. and Miss De Lano—it was De Lano originally, now it was De Lano—were there. They knew a few of those they met there, but as they had not yet effected an entire into the creme de la creme of the world's com- mercial aristocracy scarcely any of those they called acquaintances paid any attention to them.

"Mamma," said the daughter, "what can it mean? There's Walter Wells."

"You don't say so. Where?"

"Over there with—why, that's the man who was pointed out to me this afternoon as Lord Donegan, the Irish nobleman, who has been over here shooting."

Half an hour later the daughter was standing near Lord Donegan, and, seeing that she was a beautiful girl, he asked to be presented to her. During their conversation Lord Donegan spoke of hunting in the west and incidentally mentioned his friend Walter Wells. The lady led him to talk of his friend without mentioning her former ac- quaintance with him.

"I was in Colorado," he said, "start- ing for the Yellowstone park when I met Wells. I took a fancy to him and succeeded in persuading him to go with me. We were on a stagecoach one day when the driver was drunk, dropped the reins, and the horses dashed down a steep road. Wells went out on the tongue and checked the horses just as they were about to swing us around a curve and over a precipice. It wouldn't have made much difference if Donegan with a bare five thousand a year had gone over, but the owner of the Beatrice mine would have been a very different thing."

"The Beatrice?"

"Yes; named for a sweetheart, I fancy, though Wells never gave me his confidence."

"Is the mine valuable?"

"Produces a couple of hundred thou- sand a year, and Wells owned it all till he sold it recently for $10,000,000. I think."

The lady turned her head aside, and the lord went on.

"Wells came back with me, and when some of my New York friends were good enough to ask me to New- port I told them I couldn't come with- out Wells. They didn't seem to think he'd have a pleasant visit here—New- port is exclusive, you know—but when the ladies found he was a bachelor and worth $10,000,000 they kindly accepted my introduction, and he became quite the rage."

"Since you are so intimate with Mr. Wells," said Miss De Lano, "perhaps you will bear a message from me to him."

"With pleasure."

"Tell him that Miss—Miss De Lano, a friend of his, is here and would be pleased to see him."

Lord Donegan went off to find Mr. Wells.

"I say, old man," he said, "there's a Miss De Lano here—a beauty—an old friend of yours, who wants to meet you."

"What did you tell her about me?"

"Why, I told her all about you of course."

"Tell Beatrice De Lano that I passed her this evening, and so great has been the change in me during the past ten years that she failed to recognize me. I have been so shocked at my altered appearance that I haven't the heart to meet her."

"Beatrice?" repeated Donegan, look- ing at his friend searchingly.

"Yes, I named the mine for her. I came east expecting to find a sweet- heart. I found a stone."

Lord Donegan did not carry the mes- sage, and Miss De Lano knew that he had no message that would be accepta- ble. That night after her return home she threw herself on a sofa despair- ingly.

"Why, my dear," said her mother, "what's the matter? Are you ill?"

"Matter? Matter enough! Walter Wells is worth $10,000,000 and has the entire to this Newport 'smart' set that we have been trying so hard to get into, and we cut him!"

Wells and Lord Donegan left New- port the next day for New York, where the former sailed for home. Wells went west and, totally unconscious of the value of the entire he had made into the charmed circle, never took the trouble to visit the place again. Nor did the girl he came east to find ever see or hear from him.
